

OptumRx

A new home delivery pharmacy for MESSA members in 2022

MESSA is partnering with OptumRx to provide home delivery and prescription services for MESSA members starting Jan. 1, 2022.

We know that prescription medications are an important part of maintaining your good health. With OptumRx, you will continue to have reliable and convenient home delivery for your prescriptions. OptumRx also provides useful online tools to help you:

- Manage prescriptions for yourself and your covered dependents.
- Track orders for home delivery.
- Locate local participating pharmacies.
- Compare medication prices so you know you're getting the lowest price.
